Goals

I want to teach my students to express their feelings, I am convinced that they all hide a talent.

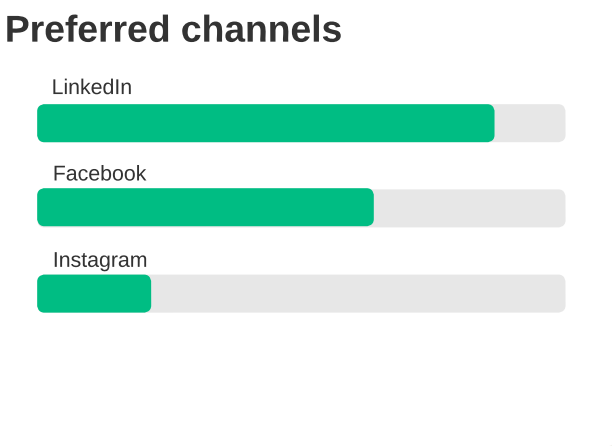

Frustrations

doesn't know how I can convince my students to love art.

Bio

"Art doesn't have to be pretty. It has to be meaningful" -Duane Hanson

User Story

I want to share my passion for art to my students. The concept of dig-in-huis in my class is definitely something that my students would like to see.

With the dig in huis app I can display several digital arts like 3D or gifs for example in my class and change it after a certain amount of times.
